

PRSC 2015-16 season wrap up

Parramatta River Sailing Club's 2015-16 season was wrapped up with the Twilight, Autumn and Special Trophies series - culminating in the club championship summations, and saw very close and enjoyable racing across both divisions, in a variety of breezes.

In Division 1 the club championship was won by the Etchells22 Axis of Evil (Geoff Dempsey - also winning the Autumn series), by a very close margin from the Adams10 League of Extraordinary Gentlemen (Bruce Wilson) and the Adams10.6 Still Festering (Pat O'Brien - also winning the Special Trophies series). The Twilight A Series was won by Still Festering skippered by Michelle Dudgeon the boat's co-owner and club Commodore.

In Division 3 the club championship was won by the Crossfire20 Xena Warrior Princess (Carolyn Howe) with a very consistent season from the Farr727 Farrago (Barry Heaton - also winning the Special Trophies series) and the other Farr727 Roustabout (Rob Widders). The Cavalier26 Firefly (Brian Wilson) well won the Autumn series with 4 out of 5 wins in a dominant effort. The Twilight B series was won by Pink Panther (Jeff Stanton).

Members now look forward to the season's presentation night and then the winter series commencing 28th May then every second Saturday.

PRSC welcomes new skippers and crew - see www.prsc.org.au for details - or attend the club at the end of Wharf Road Gladesville any Saturday afternoon scheduled races are on.
