

PRSC 2015-16 Long Course and Summer Series

Parramatta River Sailing Club's 2015-16 long course (up the harbour and back) and summer series races saw very close and enjoyable racing across both divisions, in a variety of breezes.

In Division 1 the long course series was won by the Adams10.6 Still Festering (Pat O'Brien) winning all three races, from the Adams10 League of Extraordinary Gentlemen (Bruce Wilson) and the Etchells22 Axis of Evil (Geoff Dempsey). The summer series was won by the League of Extraordinary Gentlemen with four out of six wins, from Still Festering and Axis of Evil.

In Division 3 the long course series was won by the Farr727 Roustabout (Rob Widders) with two out of three wins from the Farr727 Farrago (Barry Heaton) and the Compass750 A Fine Balance (Jonathon Carlile). The summer series was won by the Crossfire20 Xena Warrior Princess (Carolyn Howe) with three wins, from Farrago and Roustabout.

The club's Autumn series has commenced, and the Special Trophies and Twilight series continue.

PRSC welcomes new skippers and crew - see www.prsc.org.au for details - or attend the club at the end of Wharf Road Gladesville any Saturday afternoon scheduled races are on.

PRSC Committee Feb 2016.

